

Ana Procuna

Senior Director, Gas Transportation and Marketing

Ana Procuna has 20 years of experience in the natural gas industry in the US and Mexico. Ana is currently Senior Director of Gas Transportation and Marketing at Mexico Pacific, for the development of the Saguaro Energía LNG export project, located in Puerto Libertad, Sonora.

Previously, she Director of Sales and Marketing at Santa Fe Gas where she was responsible for the sales and marketing activities of natural gas and gas related products to customers located primarily in Mexico.

Ms. Procuna worked as an international business development consultant for Kinder Morgan/El Paso Corporation, located in Mexico City. She was engaged on developing new natural gas transportation infrastructure contracts between Mexico and the US.

Previously, Ms. Procuna worked for El Paso Corporation's Western Pipeline Group, located in Colorado Springs. She was responsible for marketing existing transportation capacity and originating commercial transactions for the El Paso Natural Gas pipeline.

Prior to El Paso, Ms. Procuna worked for Pemex Gas, at the natural gas international division where she performed long-term analysis on new US transportation infrastructure.

Ms. Procuna has a degree in Actuarial Sciences from UNAM and a diploma in Applied Statistics from ITAM.